

Practice Quiz #5

Nomen: Answer Key

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

Please decline the following nouns:

Ex. princeps, principis, m. - prince

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	princeps	principes
Genitive	principis	principum
Dative	principi	principibus
Accusative	principem	principes
Ablative	principe	principibus

Ex. homo, hominis, m. - man

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	homo	homines
Genitive	hominis	hominum
Dative	homini	hominibus
Accusative	hominem	homines
Ablative	homine	hominibus

Section 2: Vocabulary

Please translate the following Latin forms into English:

1. miser, misera, miserum: miserable
2. accedo, accedere: to approach
3. amicus, -i, m.: friend
4. diu: for a long time
5. tandem: at last

Please translate the following English words into Latin:

6. school: ludus, -i, m.
7. slowly: lentē
8. to sleep: dormio, dormire
9. to rise, get up: surgo, surgere
10. now, already: iam
11. big: magnus, -a -um

Section 3: Translation

Please translate into idiomatic English:

1. Ubi Helena, regina in urbe Sparta, ad Troiam procedit, omnes homines in Graecia in Troianos bellum parant.

When Helen, queen in the city Sparta, proceeded to Troy, all the men in Greece prepare war against the Trojans.

2. Multi naves in ponto ab Graecia ad Asiam navigant, quod Agamemnon principes ad urbem Troiam oppugnare iubet.

Many ships sail on the sea from Greece to Asia, because Agamemnon orders the princes to attack the city Troy

3. Milites Graeci fortiter et diligenter pugnant, sed post decem annos urbem Troiam non intrare possunt.

The Greek soldiers fight bravely and diligently, but after ten years They are not able to enter the city Troy.

Vocabulary

annus, -i, m. - year Asia, -ae, f. - Asia bellum, -i, n. - war diligenter - diligently fortiter - bravely Graecia, -ae, f. - Greece (country) Graecus, -a, -um - Greek (adjective) homo, hominis, m. - man iubeo, iubere - to order + infinitive miles, militis, m. - soldier navigo, navigare - to sail navis, navis, f. - ship

Vocabulary

omnis - all oppugno, oppugnare - to attack pontus, -i, m. - sea possum, posse - to be able to + infinitive post - after + accusative princeps, principis, m. - prince, chief procedo, procedere - to go toward, proceed pugno, pugnare - to fight regina, -ae, f. - queen Troia, -ae, f. - Troy Troianus, -i, m. - Trojan (person) urbs, urbis, f. - city